

JASA Volume 3 - First Call for Papers -

The Centre for Research Excellence is calling for manuscripts, reviews and articles for publication in the third issue of JASA.

JASA publishes two types of papers: Research papers and Review papers. Research papers contain original research work carried out and are substantiated with detailed results and discussions. Review papers also contain significant academic value and discussion but do not necessarily contain an original research work or experiment.

Details are as follows:

Next Issue: JASA Volume 3
